What We Do

We do a lot of work within North East Wales with communities, schools and other organisations.

Roundhouse at ID Hooson School, Wrexham.

Schools come to Rhydymwyn Valley Nature Reserve to learn all about the reserve and the wildlife here. Our Community Wildlife Education Officer organises school visits as well as events, training courses and volunteering.

Our Senior Ranger is responsible for all our reserves in the area along with the Reserves Officer and Volunteer Reserves Officer. There is a large variety of tasks that need doing throughout the year from newt larval counts to litter picking, to tree planting.

Aims

- Work to engage communities through training courses and public events.
- Manage sites to maintain and enhance their wildlife value
- Create new wildlife habitats
- Offer advice on wildlife to people and organisations
